WOODY WILLIAMS FOUNDATION

Welcome to August, Families!

We hope these last days of summer are treating you kindly. It's hard to believe that we'll be entering another season soon. Seasons, as you well know, aren't just about temperature changes or calendar updates. Seasons can be found within our bodies and minds as we ebb and flow through the new normals of grief.

As shifts occur, please remember to be gentle with yourself. Wherever you are in this season, we are with you. Please see below for a list of opportunities to join other Surviving Families this month!

We believe in the power of connection! If you feel comfortable doing so, tell us how you're moving through your current season of life. Maybe you're practicing mindfulness or going on long walks in nature. Email our teammate Amy to share what's been helpful to you in this season. We'd love to share some of these responses in next month's newsletter!

As always, thank you for giving our team the chance to honor your family. You are our "why"! We look forward to seeing you soon! The Outreach Team
